

Exhibition & Lecture Series

August 13-September 23

August 13 Saturday – Opening of the Journey Stories exhibit at the Aztec Museum, 10:00-4:00 pm. Held in conjunction with the N.M. Department of Tourism’s Outlaw Days in Aztec.

August 19 Friday – Homesteading in New Mexico, a History in a Suitcase presentation by Dana Reed, at the Aztec Museum, 7:00 pm.

August 26 Friday – Got a Mind to Ramble: American Songs of Migration and Adventure by Jane Voss and Hoyle Osborne at the Aztec Museum, 7:00 pm.

September 7 Wednesday – KUED film The Long Walk: Tears of the Navajo at the Aztec Museum, 7:00 pm. Panel discussion will follow.

September 9 and 10 Friday and Saturday – Linda Wheelbarger, anthropology professor at San Juan College, will present Chaco Roads Network on Friday at the Aztec Museum, 7:00 pm. A field trip to Chaco Canyon to view the road network will follow on Saturday, 10:00 am.

September 16 Friday – Life in Mid-19th Century New Mexico. Part II of Dana Reed’s History in a Suitcase presentation at the Aztec Museum, 7:00 pm.

September 17 Saturday – Aztec Pioneer Days. Antique Truck Parade at 10:00 am. Marilu Wayborne and other local authors will talk about their experiences writing regional “journey stories.”

September 23 Friday – “Journey Stories” closes at the Aztec Museum, 4:00 pm.

Journey Stories will be open to the public at no charge from August 13th through September 23rd during regular Aztec Museum summer hours, 10:00-4:00 pm, Tuesday through Saturday, with extended hours on the program dates listed above. This exhibit and accompanying programs are made possible by the generous support of the Smithsonian’s “Museum on Main Street” and the New Mexico Humanities Council.

